

Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling

The Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program at Colorado Christian University combines compelling coursework, professional practice, and mentoring relationships designed to equip you to be a professional counselor who is responsive to all cultures. The curriculum is taught within a Christian framework, giving you the unique opportunity to integrate Christ-like faith and sound clinical counseling principles within an ethical practice.

Offered both online and in-seat, this 60-credit hour (CACREP Accredited) counseling program gives you the flexibility to earn your master's degree where it's most convenient for you. In addition to your core curriculum, you are offered a variety of electives that include Neuroscience and Clinical Counseling, Substance Abuse Disorders, and Child and Adolescent Diagnosis and Treatment.

Upon completion of CCU's M.A. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program, you will be prepared to take the National Counselor Exam (NCE) and the National Clinical Mental Health Counseling Examination (NCMHCE). After graduation, you can enter into a variety of professions within the counseling field. Find more information on the Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling website.
