

Master of Science in Criminal Justice

The Master of Science in Criminal Justice program at Colorado Christian University will provide you with the competencies necessary to be a knowledgeable and articulate leader, proficient in all aspects of criminal justice. Graduates achieve an enhanced application of analysis, decision-making, and problem-solving skills, along with an understanding of contemporary management practices and organizational leadership traits.

If your career goals include a leadership position in criminal justice or a command position in law enforcement or security, then this program may be right for you. It is designed for those working in the field of criminal justice who may wish to move into leadership positions.

Criminal Justice Emphasis

CCU also offers four courses (12 credit hours) in Campus, Event, and Organizational Safety designed to address the alarming trend of mass violence in our culture through a worldview that supports the sanctity of life and a biblical view of human nature.

The courses may be completed as an optional emphasis in the M.S. in Criminal Justice program or as a stand-alone graduate certificate.

Students will acquire theoretical and practical expertise, equipped to offer best-practice preventive and response measures to maximize public safety. Those who complete the courses may receive advancement opportunities or consulting roles in criminal justice/public safety.
